CO. Dec. 28/51

My dear Lord Carnarvon

The telegram is given to Mr J. Mitchell in the matter of the Fenians.

I arrive Mr Donald today as you propose. I have directed Jadis & Joseph to have the new & old Resolutions printed in parallel columns ~~with the~~ printing in italics

It will be done by Monds night in Rack that wh doing not exist in the other.
I will come down to you on Wednesday. I do not see why the Confedn should bring you up — unless something comes by the Panama N. Zealand mail wh renders it advisable for you to settle something on the spot here to be sent out on Tuesday. — I shall be here on Tuesday afternoon, on the chance of something occurring of that kind. — Yours very truly

Frederick Rogers
