The subject of the Constitution of the Leg. C. has been under the Commⁿ of the Conference & I am very pleas^d to inform you that the Conf^{er} is unanimously of opinion that the scheme proposed in the draft Bill substituting a temporary for a life tenure is not acceptable and could not be sustained by them -

I am further desired to inquire whether the Conference is to understand that the Cabinet consider the scheme as presented on the Resolutions submitted, as impracticable and one which they ~~it should~~ they are not prepared to submit to Parliament. If you hold the further intention proposed for the C of the Conference & desire that that the it would be for the Common interest that we should be furnished with your Lordships reply in the same time as
