Ottawa, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Murdoch,

I have your letter about your memorandum on the B.N.A. Act. Mr. MacNeil mentioned the matter to me, but he did not show me the documents and I am not clear as to the basis of your contention that the Federal Parliament is unable to levy direct taxation. I should be glad to read your memorandum and comment upon it if you care to submit it to me.

Yours very truly,

F.R.Scott.
