My dear Macdonald
Thank you for your letter - I am glad to find that you have had no difficulties
with your colleagues Lord C. has written to me today that he purposes being in London early next month and will then enter upon the consideration of your proposals - I shall be ready

I come over whenever we call for me and I hope we may be able to arrange every thing in a satisfactory manner. Write all my individual opinions
 very fully to Lord C.
 so long as the month of September last.

I think you will agree with most of my views and the only reason I had for not communicating them to you

was that I thought you would be more free to act with your colleagues of the Lower Provinces of our bank say that you were not an one of my confidential communications with Lord C.

Believe me to be in haste, yours
 most truly

Monck
