

C. D.

2 Febr. 1867.

My dear Sir,

It will not be necessary to trouble you to come here to state verbally what you have said upon paper. I will at once communicate the views of the conference to my colleagues, and let you know the result. I understood from you this morning that the bill will be in my hands this afternoon. Has it been put into type? If not I will have this done.

Believe me

Yours
Hon: J. A. Macdonald. Cornwall

in the presence of some of the classes
have been transposed

T. 2nd Feb.

---

Hon: J. A. Inaud

---

Confederation Bill

---

In
By C
the w r

