Dear Lord Carnarvon.

I forgot to speak to you on a matter which seems to the delegates
or some of them to be of importance - those who desire to deal in a few days pressed
me to day to speak to Mr Gladstone &
Cardwell, to send me
Nothing a day further

If indeed any of the Delegates discussion of the Bill" as Early as possible.

This I positively
refused to do, without just mentioning it
to you de sadelap.

I must say that I think it would be a mistake, but I promised to ask your opinion.

Yours Sincerely Gladstone

Yours very faithfully
J Gladstone
