My dear Lord Cairncross

I can scarcely tell you the extent with which I should yesterday that you had picked up the heads of office - and that our official relations were to cease for the present -

"I say for the present"

as I feel that we long

when the ship rights

relations

himself again. and the Conservatives have,
 as they stood in 37, accepted the inevitable, your services to your party and the Country will be eagerly sought for &
 I hope not in vain.

I hope too, that in such case, and I confess to a little selfishness in saying so, that the Colonial office may be the field of your labours

Meanwhile let me
 thank you for much ^{kind} personal courtesy ^{to} and kindness. and as a Canadian for
 the sincere and
 genuine heartiness
 with which you
 addressed yourself
 to the object of our mission, and for the able manner in which you pursued its success. Believe me
 my dear and faithful
 very sincerely yours
 M. A. C. McDonald
